Breakfast Club

Saturday, December 4, 9-10:30am; $9.00

The first Saturday of each month join us for a lovely breakfast provided by The Quilted Crow, chat with new quilting friends, hear about new products, see a demo, and share in Show and Tell. Pre-payment required.

This Month: Guest speaker Jeanne Lex with a Jo Morton Show & Tell!!!

Beginner Needleturn Hand Appliqué

Sunday, December 5, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Karen Pessia; Class Fee: $50.00 (includes kit)

This class is for those with no experience in appliqué. Karen will cover all the basics using the 'freezer paper on top' method. She will cover the basic techniques of bias stems, outside curves, circles and points along with some basic embroidery to embellish and finish off your appliquéd piece.

NEW!!! Craft-Tea Time...Fabric Folded Holiday Pins & Ornaments!

Sunday, December 5, 11:30-1:30pm OR 2-4pm

Instructor: Beth Cardozo; Class Fee: $20

What a great, relaxing way to spend a few hours of your afternoon! We have a wonderful project planned for you, as well as tea and a tea-treat to enjoy. Come for a casual time to meet others and make a few fabric folded pins and ornaments! The best part about our Craft-Tea Times is you don't have to prepare or bring anything! All the materials, supplies and pattern are provided for you at no additional cost!

Craft-Tea Time is on-going and will be offered periodically with new projects each time!

Tea, coffee and a homemade tea treat provided by Sue Brazeau's new business, 'Made From Scratch'.

Beginner Needle Felting

Saturday, January 8, Noon - 3pm

Instructor: Lyn Slade; Class Fee: $35.00 (includes pattern and roving kit)

Join us to learn the ever growing popular art of Needle Felting. Lyn will show you all the basics in this beginner class to complete a beautiful basket of violets while teaching you techniques that can lead you to be creative with future projects on your own!

Breakfast Club

Saturday, January 8*, 9-10:30am; $9.00

The first Saturday of each month join us for a lovely breakfast provided by The Quilted Crow, chat with new quilting friends, hear about new products, see a demo, and share in Show and Tell. Pre-payment required.

Please note this month is held on the second Saturday due to the holiday.

Beginner Punchneedle Embroidery

Sunday, January 16, 12:30-3:30pm

Instructor: Janet Martin; Class Fee: $45.00 (includes kit for 6 pins)

Join in the fun and learn Russian Punchneedle Embroidery, a very old craft with a huge new interest! The basics of punchneedle will be covered including threading the needle, 'hooping' your project, punching techniques and finishing tips. The class kit includes the patterns and threads to complete six great pins!

Beginner Invisible Machine Appliqué

Saturday, January 22, 11am - 4pm

Instructor: Karen Pessia; Class Fee: $50.00 (includes kit)

Learn how to appliqué by machine with an invisible zigzag stitch! You will work with a foundation material and prepared edges. You will be amazed at how quickly you can master this technique. This is a class with the beginner in mind, but all levels are welcome. What a fun way to do appliqué!

Know Your Janome 6600 Sewing Machine

Sunday, January 23, 10:30am - 3:30pm

Instructor: Lynn Thibault; Class Fee: $40.00

Do you own a Janome 6600? Would you like to learn more about your machine and take the mystery out of its features? Learn the basics and then go on to make a button hole. Apply cording, work with the alphabet, the memory, fancy stitches and even touch on machine quilting with a darning foot.

NEW DATE!!! Bali Tote Bag

Saturday, January 29, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Rose Wuoti; Class Fee: $40 (plus pattern)

Whether you use batiks, a jelly roll, or 2 ½" strips from your own stash, this bag will turn out amazing! It measures 12"w x 11"h with an oval bottom and an optional pocketed lining. Clothesline is wrapped in fabric and sewn together for an attractive yet sturdy bag great for all your needs.
Another fantastic gift solution (if you can part with it)!!

New!!! Frost Farm Stencilscape

Saturday, February 12, 9am - 5pm

Instructor: Jackie Paton; Class Fee: $65 (includes art supplies & pattern)

Please note this is a new, additional date as the Nov. & Dec. classes are full.

As you stencil (on fabric!) this charming New England winter scene with a barn nestled amid the snow drifts and sheep in the snowy pasture, you will want to head north!! Anyone can achieve this project. There is no artistic ability necessary to learn Jackie's stenciling technique! You will complete the center painted portion in class and receive the pattern to complete the borders (or just leave it as is and frame it!).

NEW!! Workshop Tote Bag

Sunday, February 13, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Kathie Beltz; Class Fee: $40 (includes pattern)

Make a tote bag large enough to carry all your gear to class! This 22" x 32" bag is large enough for all your supplies, with pockets to organize rulers, rotary cutters, and even a cutting board! It holds everything but the sewing machine!! This is an easy project for any level quilter

Machine Quilting 101

Sunday, February 20, 10:30am - 3:30pm

Instructor: Lynn Thibault; Class Fee: $40.00 (plus book)

Do you have UFO's stacked in a corner because you have reached the point of quilting them? Lynn will take the fear out of machine quilting as you learn how to prepare your quilt for quilting, relax, breath and machine quilt with your basic in-the-ditch stitch and then move on to learn a variety of free motion quilting designs.

NEW!! Log Cabin Jacket

Saturday, February 26, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Jeanne Lex; Class Fee: $40 (includes design)

Whether you use holiday, country or bright fabrics to trim the bottom with the log cabin block, this stylish jacket is perfect for special occasions or anytime you need a light jacket. Create this comfortable jacket in one day with Jeanne's step by step guidance using a crew-neck sweatshirt as the base.

Beginner Piecing & Beginner Quilting

Two Sessions: Sunday, March 6 & 13, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Lynn Thibault; Class Fee: $75.00 for both sessions (pattern included)

Create a beautiful table runner to match your décor or give as a gift. The first class will teach the basics of using your rotary cutter and ruler and piecing with an accurate $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam. The second class will have you machine quilting your project and adding the binding. Lyn always has MANY tips to add along the way for perfection.

NEW!!! Wearable Traditional Japanese Kimono

Saturday, March 12, 10am - 4pm

Instructor: Miho Takeuchi; Class Fee: $40 (includes pattern)

The traditional cotton kimono, called yukata, are a common sight in Japan at summer events and frequently worn after bathing. They are worn as cool summer dress, bathrobe, night gown and morning gown. Since the 1990's yukata has experienced a revival. Make one in your own size without using a paper pattern, but rather cut the fabrics with the instructor by using your own body measurement.

Schoolhouse Shop Hop

March 25, 26, 27

Friday & Saturday 9am - 7pm, Sunday 10am - 5pm

Don't miss out on the food, fun, demos, six free patterns and $1,000+ in prizes! Register early & pay a $7 'tuition' to receive your 'school bag' and free pattern. Travel 'The Learning Loop' to discover five fantastic shops and receive a diploma and graduation gift! www.schoolhouseshop.com

Any required supplies for these classes purchased at The Quilted Crow will receive a 10% discount.

All class projects can be viewed on our website www.thequiltedcrow.com under 'classes'.

Pre-payment is required for all classes/workshops/events to reserve your space.

ONGOING MONTHLY WORKSHOPS/CLUBS:

Appliqué Club

Third Saturday, 1:30 - 4pm

Instructor: Karen Pessia; Club Fee: $17

Do you love block-of-the-month programs but feel a bit intimidated by it all? Or do you just want to brush up and perfect your appliqué skills? Karen is available to help participant's conquer their fear of appliqué. This is an opportunity to bring whatever appliqué project you are working on and have one of the finest appliqué teachers available to help you improve your skills.
(Please note this club is not being offered at a beginner level.)

Wool Arts Club

Second Wednesday, 6-9:30pm

Instructor: Diane Daniels; Workshop Fee: $15.00

A monthly open workshop held the 2nd Wed. to help you complete your wool projects. Diane will help problem solve, teach finishing techniques, and see you to the end of your project. Rug hooking and wool work included. These sessions are not for beginners.

Open Sew

You pick the date!

(whenever we do not have a class in session).

$10.00

You are invited to come and sew to your hearts content in our classroom space! We have set aside every Tuesday and Thursday for independent, uninterrupted, creative sewing!! Drag out those UFO's, get inspired to begin something new, finish a holiday gift, or just plain relax with other quilters. Gather some friends and meet at our place! Space is limited so please call in advance to reserve yours.

Baltimore Album Workshop

Third Saturday, 10am - 1pm

Instructor: Karen Pessia; Workshop Fee: $20.00/workshop

Karen has put together an 'open studio' the third Saturday of each month for Baltimore Albums. The patterns would be from Elly Sienkiewicz's book, Baltimore Elegance (required for workshop). She will help you select your blocks, the size of them and also help with fabric selection. From there you would work on your own specific block of choice while Karen provides how-to's for each block and demo some 3-D flowers or embroidery.

NEW! Quilts of Valor Sew In

First Friday Each Month, 10:30am - 2:30pm (no charge)

Join us to donate your time and say "Thank You!" to our local service members by making patriotic quilts for them. Bring your sewing machine and stitch the day away. Please call The Quilted Crow ahead and let us know you're planning on coming. Donations of 12 ½" red, white and/or blue blocks are also welcome. Patterns and fabric will be provided. Please call Marcella for further info: 978-630-1615.
